

EPLO
European Public Law
Organization

13/12/2021

Online Discussion on Genomic Data

The Institute for Privacy Law, Data Protection and Technology of the EPLO organizes an online discussion on Monday, 13 December 2021 on 18.00-20.00 on the topic:

To whom does the genomic data "belong"? Scientific research and management of genomic data.

Welcome Addresses by:

Spyridon Flogaitis, Director of the European Public Law Organization.

Nikolas Kanellopoulos, Executive Director of the Institute for Privacy Law, Data Protection and Technology and President of the Institute for Justice and Development

Speakers / Topics:

International Code of Genomic Data Sharing: The Sienna Project proposal.

Maria Boti, Professor of Information Law - Ionian University

The European Genome Phenome Archive (EGA): A model for sharing genomic data.

Babis Savvakis, Emeritus Professor of the University of Crete - Researcher at the Research Center for Biomedical Sciences 'Alexandros Fleming'.

Personal data protection issues in scientific research - The specificity of genetic data.

Fereniki Panagopoulou, Assistant Professor at Panteion University

Genomic data availability: the role of automation

Christos Ouzounis, Professor of Bioinformatics - Department of Informatics, AUTH

The event will be coordinated by Ms Lillian Mitrou, Professor at the Department of Information and Communication Systems Engineering of the Polytechnic School of the University of the Aegean and President of the Institute for Privacy Law, Data Protection and Technology.

A discussion will follow. The event language is Greek.

ZOOM: https://us02web.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_AG6aOy0FS220ngo68wVyPw

YOUTUBE: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCvm90iMgbLnh40kMEFfwIQ>