

EPLO
European Public Law
Organization

22/07/2022

Institute for Transparency & Fundamental Rights

The Institute aims to promote the protection of fundamental rights in the European, international and comparative national space at scientific, social and political level, as well as the dialogue of cultures in this field. The Institute cooperates with Universities, Institutes and other institutions of the country, the EPLO as well as with the counterparts of other countries from all over the world and organizes conferences, seminars, publications and events to promote its mission, establishes or participates in programs that produce scientific research and/or foresee the exchange of scientists and students, always within the framework of its purpose.